

Importance of culture for life quality

Croatia

- Survey made out of 20 questions
- 50 examinees ages 18 and above

?

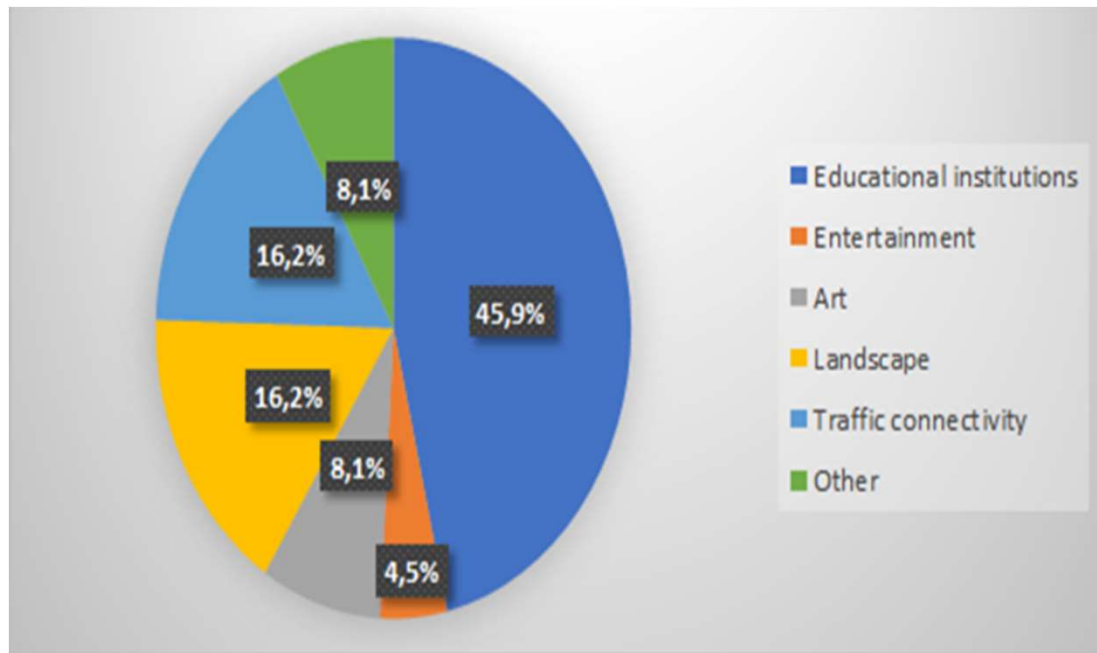

?

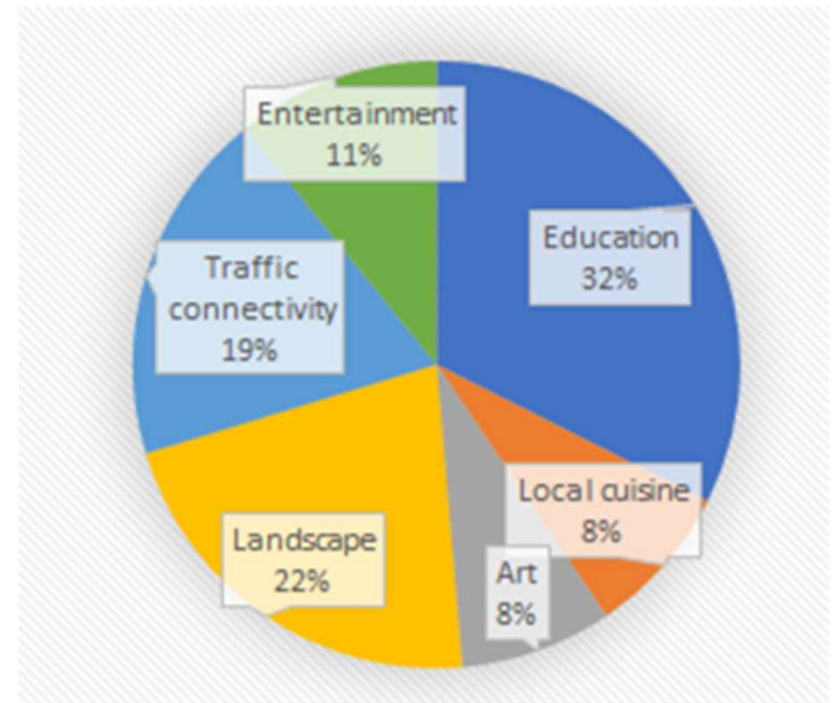

?

- What's the biggest advantage of the city you live in?

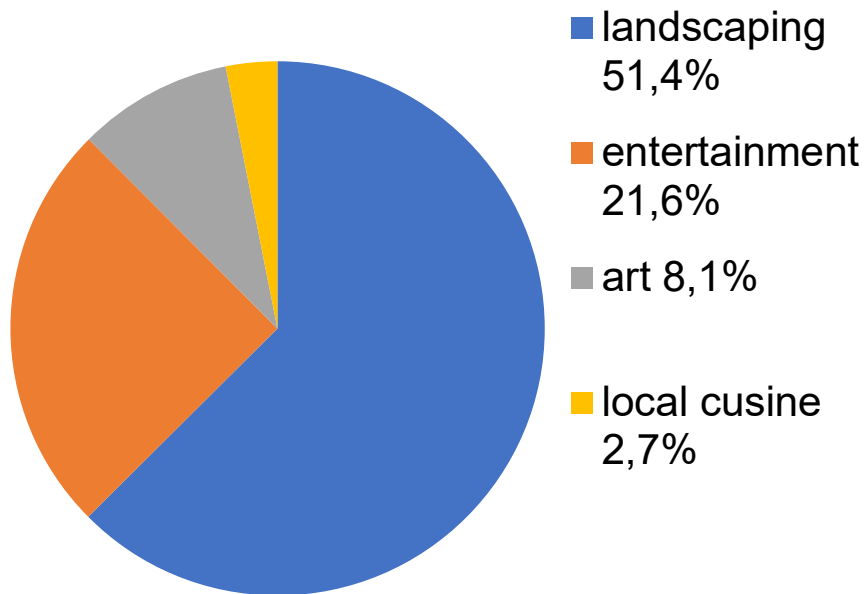

- What makes that place ideal?

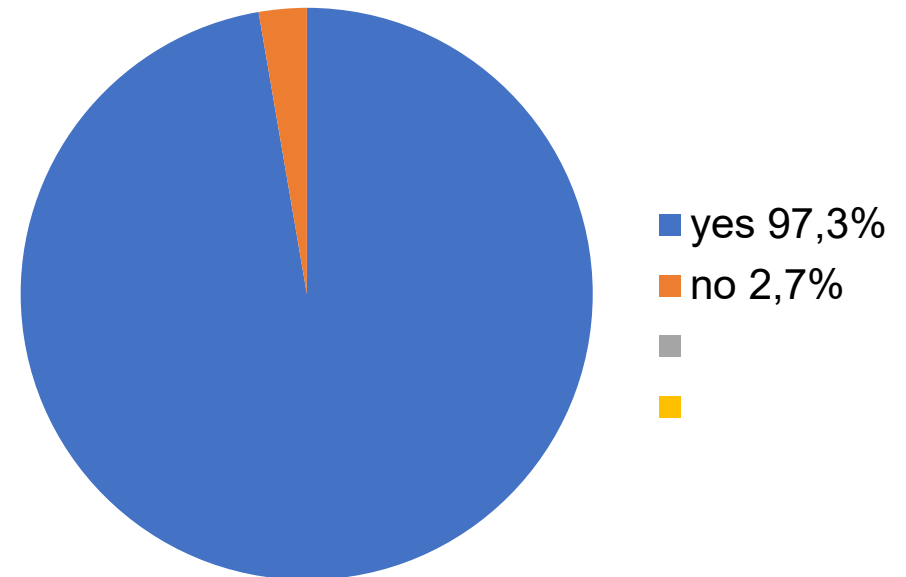

Conclusions for questions 1 & 2

- A wide spectre of opportunities for the future of development of the individual which also leads to building a developed society
- Green areas as they're the beauty of the city and a space to spend your free time
- Historical inheritance is close to us and also available to us
- Nature is really important in everyday life. Quality of transport and connectivity

- What matters to you the most when choosing a place to spend your holiday ?

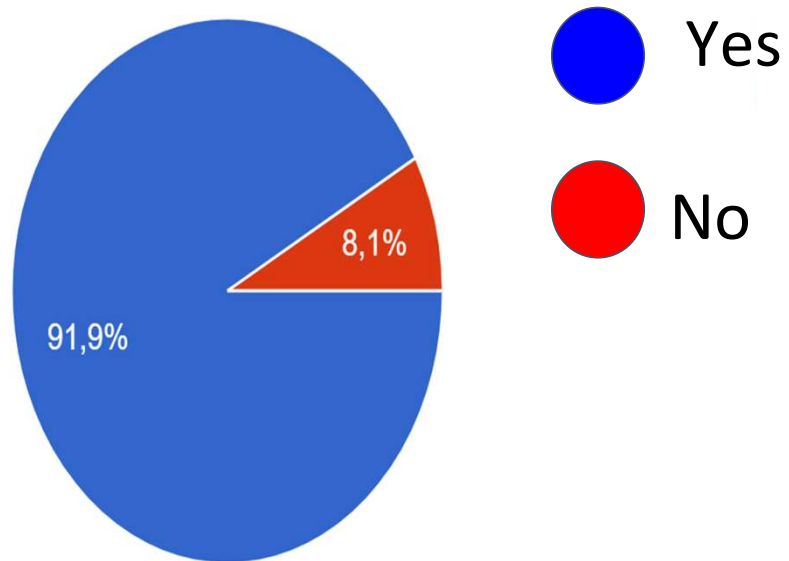

- Does a variety of cultural aspects (theatres, architecture, rich history) affect the development of society and the individual in it?

Conclusions for question 3 & 4

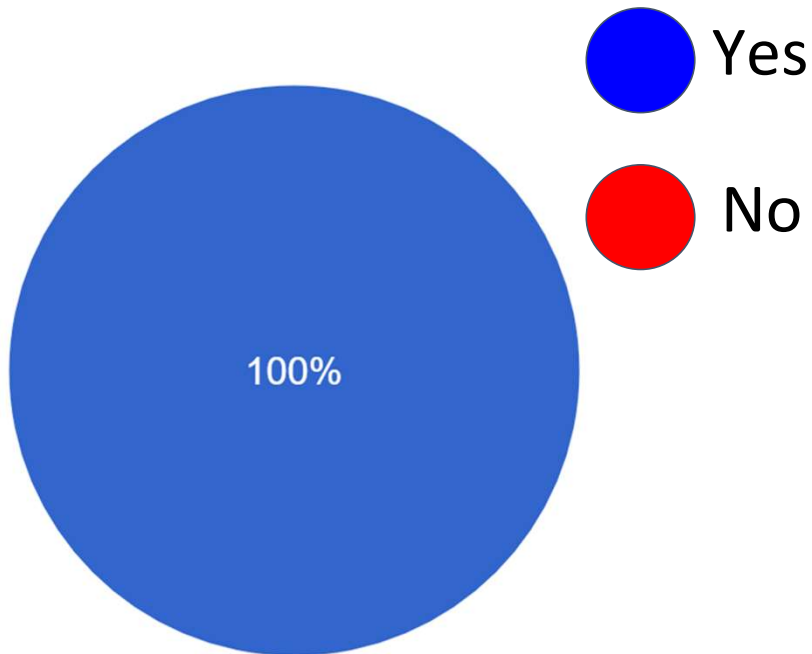

- Entertaining content and isolation from the rushed everyday life
- Enrichment of personality and knowledge. Acceptance of differences and appreciation of the same

- Do natural beauties / landscaping affect the development of society and the individual in it?

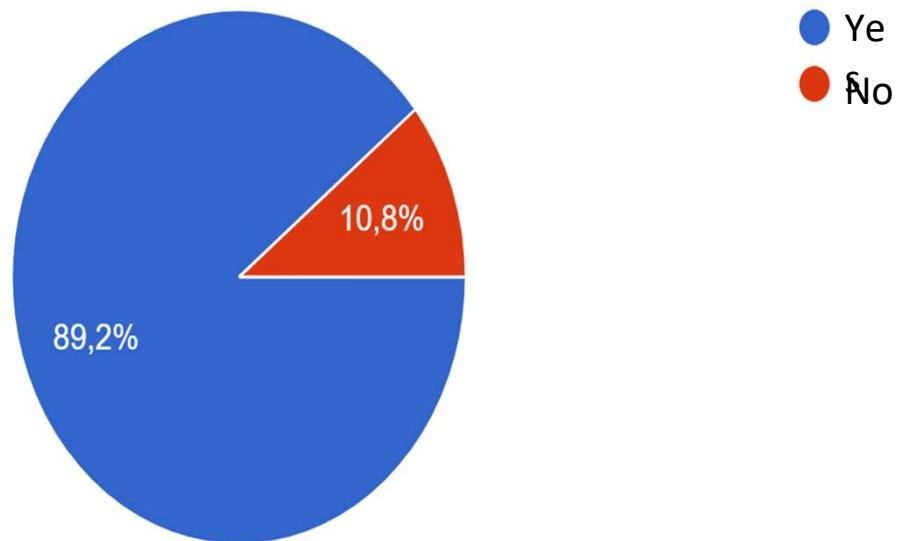

- Natural beauties and landscaping positively affect people
- They encourage maintenance of those beauties and ecological awareness

- Does traffic connectivity affect the development of society and the individual in it?

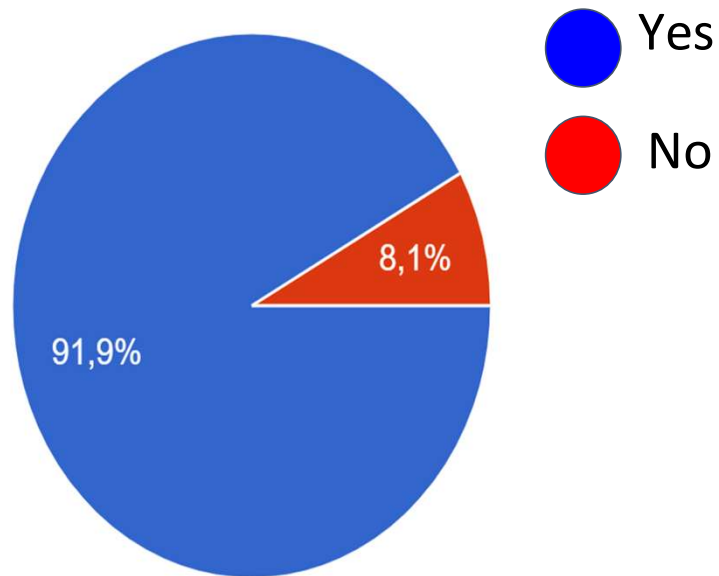

- Traffic connectivity increases the number of visitors and further develops tourism
- A quick and effective way to get to a place which we couldn't visit otherwise

- Does art (architecture, museums, theatres) affect the development of society and the individual in it?

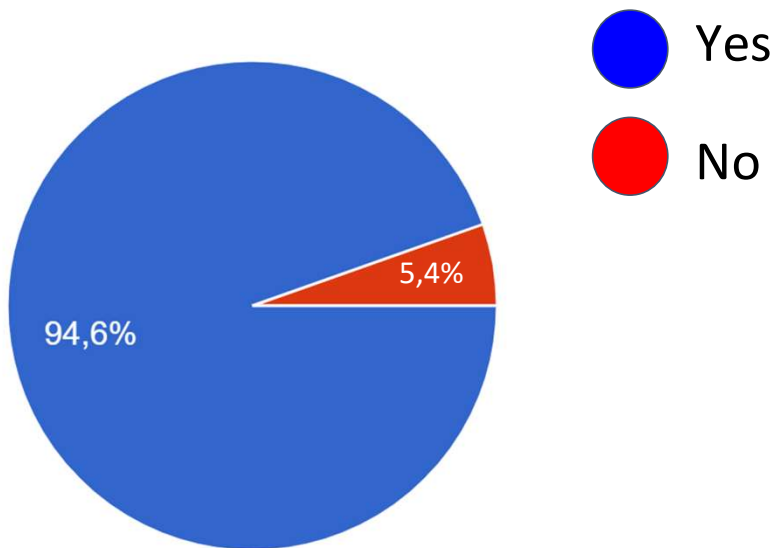

- Art affects education of the individual and gives him the option to culturally grow
- Responsible for knowing the history of a certain city

- Does a choice of entertainment (cinemas, clubs) affect the development of society and the individual i it?

- Choice of entertaining content gives the individual the freedom of choice
- It positively affect the individual and it offers him some further development

- Does a choice of educational institutions affect the development of society and the individual in it?

- Choice of education institutions affects the development of society and the individual in it because it increases the chance of success in life
- Quality of educational institutions affects the development of a person as an intellectual and emotional being

Why would the citizens of the EU potentially want to come and live / study in Croatia?

Citizens of the EU could potentially want to come live in Croatia because of the quality of education and general safety of life. Citizens of the EU could potentially want to come live in Croatia because of our rich historical, cultural and natural inheritance.